

Chapter III

Give thanks daily in all you do for this reinforces this powerful energy of manifestation.

Beloved one.

YOU ARE All That Is, for in the Universe the scheme of things is orderly and in fashion. One cannot be isolated, as on the top of a mountain all alone, for it cannot be so. Your energies move and merge with the universal theme. One cannot be apart from the other. It is in the consciousness of each individual where this downfall lies. It is the untruth that they hold of separation. For in truth there is no separateness, all merges and flows as one.
